IMPROVEMENTS AND WATCHMEN

Western Maryland Railway will Place Watchmen at Carlisle and Stratton Street Crossings and will Improve Station.

The Western Maryland Railroad has given notice that it will place watchmen at the Carlisle and Stratton street crossings of the road. This is in line with the requests made by the borough council committee at a meeting with the railroad officials held some weeks ago.

The Western Maryland has also decided to make extensive changes and improvements to its station in this place. A new platform is to be laid to replace the present gravel walk which now serves that purpose and which was put down a year or more ago to replace the board platform. The new platform will be of either brick or concrete.

The building is to be painted on both interior and exterior and better toilet facilities are also to be installed. New flooring is also to be laid in the station and the place will be otherwise improved and made more attractive.

The changes and improvements are to be done in the best possible manner and will entail between $100 and $1500 expense.

DESPONDENT MAN KILLS HIMSELF

Mr. Wertz, Will Known in Adams County, Ends his Life while Staying at the Home of his Sister in Indiana.

Charles Wertz, whose funeral took place at Christ Church, near Littlestown, today, committed suicide on Friday by shooting himself in the head at the home of his sister in Kentland, Indiana.

The man was aged about 27 years and has a number of relatives living in Hanover and vicinity who were not apprised of the manner in which he met his death by the telegram telling that he had died. A letter received by a sister told the details, however.

The suicide was employed on a farm near Kentland for several years, but recently was living with his sister's family. He helped them to move on Thursday, and at that time gave no evidence that he contemplated suicide. Not putting in an appearance for dinner on Friday, the sister, on going to his room, found the young man lying on the floor, with a stream of blood flowing from a bullet wound in his forehead, while his hand clutched a revolver.

The funeral was held in Hanover at 9 o'clock this morning.

After brief services the cortège proceeded to Christ Church, near Littlestown, where further services were held and interment made. Rev. F. S. Lindaman officiating.

PHILA. STRIKE NEAR AN END

Merchants and Politicians to Force Arbitration.

PUBLIC OPINION TURNS TO MEN

Political Bosses Urged to Return From Florida and End Contest. General Strike Order Alarm Business Men and Bankers.

Philadelphia, March 1.—Telegraphic messages are being flashed between Philadelphia and St. Lucie, Florida, calling on James P. McNichol and William S. Vare, the Republican bosses of this city, to return and end the trolley strike.

They were appealed to to hustle home and save Philadelphia from the dangers of a general strike. The situation has become so alarming in the past twenty-four hours that even McNichol and Vare are in danger of becoming popular. They are depended upon, these bosses, to succeed where the clergymen of the city failed.

The impression strengthens hourly that the Central Labor Union was not bluffing when it ordered a general sympathetic strike. Merchants and manufacturers, who laughed a few days ago at the possibility of extended trouble, have become apprehensive. They are scared and admit it. Business has been cramped enough as it is by the devilry that grew out of the carmen's strike. The possibilities that hinge upon a general walkout have made these business men thoroughly uncomfortable. Therefore the C. Q. D. to General McNichol and Admiral Vare.

Company Faces Defeat.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, for a variety of reasons, is in the curious position of being about to lose a strike that it has won, a dilemma brought upon itself by the snub it gave to the clergymen of the city when it told the ministers that it wouldn't arbitrate anything. The pertinacity of one man, George H. Earle, one of three city representatives on the Rapid Transit company's board of directors, required the company to take that stand.

Previously the sympathies of a public that had never learned to love the Rapid Transit company were with the company, because it was generally believed that the company had been fair with its men and that it was within its rights in declining to permit Clarence O. Pratt and the Amalgamated Union of Street Railway Employees to dictate how and when it should employ or discharge its men. Upwards of a week public opinion backed up the Transit directors. People turned a cold shoulder toward Pratt and the noisy strikers. The men's position was made even more untenable because of widespread and vicious disorder. Little by little, car by car, the company reinstated service, until it was within 50 per cent of the normal.

But the strike seemed likely to drag out for weeks, because Pratt is a fighter and maintains extraordinary ascendancy over his followers. Citizens got tired of dodging brickbats and walking five miles from home to business. The strikers were willing to arbitrate, and it is known positively that they would have agreed to the decision of a board of arbitration, even if the board had eliminated the question of exclusive recognition of their union. Acting in response to a general demand, the clergymen, including Bishop Wilson, of the Methodist church, and Archbishop Ryan, of the Roman Catholic diocese, offered means of adjustment. The company, through its directors, gave heed to George H. Earle, and turned down mediatory offers. Then, as had been threatened, a general strike was planned and called. Pratt and Murby had enough influence with the leaders of 100,000 union workmen to swing them in behind the carmen. As things stand now, it is 10 to 1 that these men will leave their picks in the air on next Saturday morning unless the Rapid Transit company decides to leave the points of difference between itself and its men to a board of arbitration.

The company stands, in actual fact, in just the position it had the striking carmen three days ago. Its back is to the wall and it is being attacked by everybody who has an interest in the present crisis.

Forcing Arbitration.

During the day half a dozen movements were started to compel the Rapid Transit company to arbitrate. Nobody wants a general strike, not even the union men who are preparing to walk out, but the town is thoroughly convinced that a general strike is exactly what it is facing in case the Rapid Transit company refuses to draw cards. Investigation of the situation developed this: Employers of all kinds—brewers, heads of weaving factories, the Cramps, men who employ machinists, steam fitters, carpenters, tailors, milk wagon drivers, electrical workers, a hundred other kind of workmen, have asked their men what they really intended to do if the Rapid Transit company refused to arbitrate. In almost every case they have been informed that their employees would abide by the decision of their unions.

game. There are many large industrial concerns in Philadelphia that have large contracts on hand. They are carrying these contracts on money borrowed from the banks. The banks are keenly interested in preventing a general strike. They put the solution of the problem up to one of the most powerful institutions in this city—the Market Street Merchants' association. Outside of the Republican machine there is no single body of men who can accomplish more when they set about to do it than the Market street merchants.

The merchants, headed by Ellis Gimbel and Samuel D. Lit, got together and agreed tentatively to two plans of action, one of which or both may be brought forward. The first plan was to call from the delights of Florida Boss McNichol and Boss Vare, who settled the strike last June when it threatened to become extremely unpleasant. The second was to make direct representations to the Rapid Transit company that something would drop if the company continued to hold out.

Mayor Against Arbitration.

One of the most outspoken against arbitration has been the Hon. John E. Reyburn, who, besides being mayor of Philadelphia, is a member of the Rapid Transit company directors. While the Hon. Henry Clay, director of public safety, has been quelling disorder, Mayor Reyburn has been spilling interviews into every newspaper office in town, saying that no matter what popped out of hell he, the mayor, would never stand for arbitration.

Naturally the labor leaders are chortling over the outcome of affairs. Pratt, who brought about the situation, and Murphy, who backed him up, are jubilant. They are confident now that arbitration will be forced and that they will get a slice at least of what they have been fighting for.

The Rapid Transit company announced that it had 900 cars in operation during the day, about half the number in use normally, and that it was running 540 at night. The company reported that 200 strikers had deserted their union and applied for work at the company's offices. Of these 126 were re-employed.

ATTEMPT TO OPEN MILLS A FAILURE

Few Men Report For Work at South Bethlehem.

South Bethlehem, Pa., March 1.—The feeble attempt to resume work at the Bethlehem Steel company's plant resulted in the breaking out of fresh disorder, which not only inflamed the strikers and their sympathizers against the state police more than ever, but made them more determined to stick to their fight.

When men returned to work by request of the company they were not molested. The state police, 105 in number, were divided into squads of twelve and six each, and patrolled the several entrances to the steel works.

The various departments are far from having sufficient men on hand to operate them with any material measure of success.

A score of meetings were held by the strikers. The formulating of demands occupied most of the time, but the labor leaders cautioned the men again to refrain from violence.

The result of the dismal failure to open the works was told Charles M. Schwab, president of the steel company, and he declared his intention of keeping the shops closed for a year or three years if necessary. Two hundred strike breakers are reported as having been brought to the mill late Sunday night, and more are supposed to be on the way here. They are taken in as laborers and the strikers fear very little from them.

Six of the prisoners incarcerated in the steel mill made their escape by jumping from a second story window. Two were handcuffed together, but they fled with the others, and all efforts to find them have failed.

Will Call Packers In Food Probe.

Washington, March 1.—The senate committee on the high cost of living has decided definitely to call the meat packers and managers of cold storage plants. Chairman Lodge of the committee, probably will communicate with the state authorities in New Jersey, where indictments have been returned against the packers, before issuing summons to witnesses.

Free Remedy For. Weak Bowels

There are two forms of bodily cleanliness, the external and the internal. The one is for your pride in yourself; the other for your life and health. Both are important, but vastly more importance in the long run is internal cleanliness.

This is on point that all should watch about their bowels—their system does not do this naturally, in the process of eating and drinking, then you obtain aid of some kind. After finding out that cathartics salts and such things relive you, don't bind you up worse than ever. Next day, then try a simpler and more natural remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup, Pepson.

For the skeptic the best way to begin is to send money and address to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle. Use it as directed and if it convinces you that a brief continuance of its use will relieve you permanently—that it will train the stomach and the bowels to again work naturally at certain hours, then buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing. They began with a sample bottle, then bought a full bottle, and now, fully convinced of its merits, they buy the one dollar family size.

A brief use of this great digestive tonic will cure constipation in its worst form, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and such ailments and keep you in continuing good health at a very small cost. Such is the case of many families like that of Mrs. Oscar Fleener, Unionville, Ind., J. F. Daniel, San Antonio, Tex., and hundreds of others that could be named.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the use of his liver and bowel absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For further information the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.R. 1, Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

TO WIPE OUT FALSE ASSET

Treasurer McClung Wants $28,100,000 Item Removed.

Washington, March 1.—Lee McClung, treasurer of the United States has asked congress to enact a law that will wipe off the books of the treasury the sum of $28,100,000. This is a seventy-three-year-old echo of the 1837 panic, or rather it is a reminder of the cause of that great financial disturbance. When Jackson was president the country had accumulated a surplus of $40,000,000 and he decided to loan all but $5,000,000 to the various states. There was actually paid to the states $28,100,000, of which Pennsylvania received $2,867,504. New Jersey $764,670, and Delaware $286,251.

The distribution of this money helped bring on the great inflation that produced the panic of 1837. Ever since then this money has appeared on the asset side of Uncle Sam's books. As congress has never shown any disposition to collect this big sum from the various states, which it is said it could do, Treasurer McClung now wants to have it wiped off as an uncollectible debt.

PORK KEEPS GOING UP

Live Hogs Reach the $10 Mark in Chicago.

Chicago, March 11.—The $10 mark made his first appearance on the local market since 1870 at Monday's session. A load of 264 pound hogs, sixty-six in number, was bought by an eastern shipper at that price. The sale was made early, but was "under cover." B. L. Stromh, of Cushing, Ia., was the lucky man who owned the hogs, and they netted him the most money of any similar weight hogs for forty years.

ARREST OF PACKERS ORDERED TO BEGIN

Prosecutor Has Capases Issued For Indicted Men.

Jersey City, N. J., March 1.—Capases for the arrest of the indicted meat packers and summonses for the six indicted meat corporations were ordered by Pierre P. Garven, prosecutor of Hudson county, who will later hand them over to Sheriff Kelly for execution. The sheriff will find out who of the indicted men are in the jurisdiction. Mr. Garven said:

"The indicted men know of the indictments, their lawyers have conferred about the indictments and proceedings will now take their regular course. I cannot say now just what I will do after I receive the report of the sheriff. The logical thing for the defendants to do is to come into the court and plead. But the attitude of their attorneys does not indicate that they mean to do that.

"Some time this week I will make application for the dissolution of the charters of the Corporation Trust company of this city, and the corporations named in this prosecution. If they fail to produce the minutes of their annual meetings and other records, as required by the subpoenas.

"On account of the importance of the litigation, the state intends to take speedy action. The indictments have been found and it is up to me to bring the defendants here. I purpose to give all hands an opportunity to come voluntarily to Hudson county, but if they do not then I shall proceed in the usual manner to have them extradited.

T. R. Denies He Was Hurt.

Cairo, Egypt, March 1.—"Preposterous! Never in better health. There has been no accident of any kind," was the answer sent by Theodore Roosevelt to United States Consul General Iddings here, in response to an inquiry a sto the truth of a report that the former president had been injured while hunting. The report of an accident caused great excitement here.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Gettysburg readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Charles Kennel, 401 S. Washington St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago and I have not changed my opinion of them. I still consider this the best one on the market for kidney trouble. A member of my family suffered from rheumatism and kidney complaint and was subject to acute attacks of backache. There was a stiffness and lameness across the loins, especially noticeable in the morning and a tired, languid feeling was in evidence. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the People's Drug Store, brought the first relief that had ever been received and when they have been taken since then, benefit has always followed. It gives me great pleasure to tell of the merits of this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WHY SALVES FAIL

TO CURE ECZEMA

They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid Can Reach the Inner Skin.

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.

We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. D. Prescription at $1.00 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription, we arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special large bottle at 21 cents on a special offer now. This first bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once.
